

Two ways to plant Community Groups

Plant Through Multiplication

Strategy: Grow the group to around 15 people and multiply both people and leaders to form a new group.

Plant Through Sending

Strategy: Develop leaders who can be sent to start a new group. The size of the CG is not as important. Leadership development is the main issue. Once a leader has been developed they are sent along with anyone who wants to assist the new leader to start a new CG.